

Helping hands for the volunteer community

DO SOMETHING DAY – EDITORIAL AND PHOTOS – JUNE 15TH 2016

Queensland’s Sunshine Coast is a great place to live – and a great place to volunteer. Every year, the lead volunteering organisation, Volunteering Sunshine Coast, places up to 1,700 people of all ages, skills and backgrounds in around 140 not-for-profit organisations. That’s a lot of people-power.

But there’s always a need for more volunteers to help with aged people, children and young adults, animals, environment, families, multicultural, disabilities....there’s no limit. In art galleries, libraries, schools, retirement villages and nursing homes. For a few hours a week. Or a day or two a week. From handymen to IT and social media specialists; from teachers to mentors; from therapists to marketers; from admin to driving to accounting. Take a dog for a walk? Sure can. The reward? Satisfaction in doing a worthwhile job.

If any of this sounds like you, please visit the Volunteering Sunshine Coast website www.volunteering.sunshinecoast.org.au or email admin@volunteering.sc.org.au or phone 07 5443 8256. (We would also like to hear from not-for-profit organisations wanting volunteers.)
